Liberty Counsel Natural Marriage Defense Act

Whereas, the Obergefell v. Hodges, No. 14-556, 2015 WL 2473451 (June 26, 2015), five justices of the United States Supreme Court issued a lawless opinion with no basis in American law or history, purporting to overturn Natural Marriage and find a “right” to same-sex “marriage” in the Constitution and the Fourteenth Amendment; and

Whereas, the Obergefell opinion is “an act of will, not legal judgment,” and the “right it announces has no basis in the Constitution or in [it] Court’s precedent;” and

Whereas, the Obergefell opinion is “the furthest extension in fact—and the furthest extension one can even imagine”—of the U.S. Supreme Court’s claimed power to create the “right” that the Constitution and its Amendments, neglected to mention; and

Whereas, the Obergefell opinion is “an opinion lacking even a thin veneer of law;” and

Whereas, the Obergefell opinion is “a naked judicial claim to legislative — indeed, super-legislative—power; a claim fundamental to our system of government;” and

Whereas, the Obergefell opinion is “an opinion that has been regarded as a virtually exclusive province of the States;” United States v. Windsor, 133 S. Ct. 2670, 2680 (2013); and

Whereas, Mninster states “[The states, at the time of the adoption of the Constitution, possessed full power over the subject of marriage and divorce ...] and the Constitution delegated no authority to the Government of the United States on the subject of marriage and divorce;” and
